

Diocletian's palace and Gallery Mestrovic – PRIVATE TOUR

Discover Diocletian Palace and visit the Gallery of Ivan Mestrovic, a famous Croatian sculptor and architect, one of the greatest sculptors of the 20th century

The Diocletian Palace and Gallery Mestrovic tour starts at the agreed time and meeting point. After the guests meet their tour guide the tour starts through ancient history of Split. The guests walk through the Diocletian's palace and one part of the old town. During the tour they stop by to see the Cathedral of St. Dujice, one of the most beautiful cultural wonders on the Adriatic coast but also the ancient cellars, Peristyle in center of the palace, Roman temples (today Christian ones), the famous Golden Gate and the big statue from Grgur Ninski.

Then the tour continues driving towards gallery Mestrovic. This is the gallery of one of the most famous Croatian sculptors. On the tour the guests discover more about Ivan Mestrovic, who was the first living person to have a one man show at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York City. His art is recognized all over the world. The Ivan Mestrovic Palace, now gallery, was built in Split between 1931 and 1939. Mestrovic himself made the original plans based on his own design. The tour guide takes the guests on a tour through the garden and the gallery where they see the interesting and unique art of Ivan Mestrovic.

After the sightseeing and full of impressions the tour ends with drive back to Split city center.
